VISITING OUR WEBSITES

WORK IN PROGRESS

When you visit www.thegrumpymole.co.uk or one of our establishment websites we use a third party service, Google Analytics, to collect standard internet log information and details of visitor behaviour patterns. We do this to find out things such as the number of visitors to various parts of our sites and the time spent viewing these pages. This information is processed in a way which does not identify a specific user it is measured as traffic. We do not make, and do not allow Google to make, any attempt to find out the identities of those visiting our website. In addition to this our websites does use *Cookies at certain points to identify and store preferences so that we can customise your experience and speed up specific procedures.

 Cookies are commonly used across the internet to record information and provide a tailored experience, for example; When you visit a site that uses cookies for the first time, a cookie is downloaded onto your computer/device/phone, the next time you visit that site it checks to see if it has a cookie that is relevant (that is, one containing the site name) and sends the information contained in that cookie back to the site. The site then 'knows' that you have been there before, and in some cases, tailors what you see to take account of that fact. For instance, it can be helpful to vary content according to whether this is your first ever visit to a site or your 50th.*
